ORAL JUDGEMENT (Per R.K. Abichandani, J)

1. When this application is called out, the learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that during the pendency of this application the petitioner has received some amounts under the award. It is stated that as regards the disputed amount to which the petitioner is entitled to under the award, the petitioner has already preferred a recovery application and will prefer further such application as may be permissible under the law. Subject to the rights and contentions of the petitioner, the learned counsel seeks permission to withdraw this application. In this view of the matter, there remains no ground for proceeding further in this contempt application.

Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
